THE POTTER COMMITTEE.

Plans for Delay with the Prospect of Escaping an Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.

The request of the Potter committee for authority to prosecute the cipher inquiry is expected to come up for consideration to-morrow. This is coupled with an appropriation of money. The passage of this resolution by the committee was only to secure delay, and under nearly a dozen decisions of its own it had full authority to investigate anything relating, even indirectly, to electoral matters. The plan of the Democrats is to call the previous question and shut off debate. Several Republicans have a few questions to ask of a pointed character.

THE WEIGHT OF ST. MARTIN'S STATEMENT.

Mr. Stenger is expected to attempt, in a personal explanation, tomorrow, to break the force of St. Martin's statement. The delay in this matter has, however, been accepted by the Republicans and a good many Democrats, as an admission of the general truth of St. Martin's story.

FROM ENGLAND.

Great Distress Among the Workmen.

LONDON, Jan. 19.

Advices from Glasgow state that there is a fearful amount of destitution existing in that city, and applications for relief are on the increase. There are also many skilled workmen out of employment who are subsisting on their last savings, or on money received from benefit societies and trades' unions, as well as other temporary expedients. Advices from Manchester, Telford, Birmingham, Barnley, Merthira, South Durham, Southport and Wolverhampton state that unprecedented distress in those localities continues to increase, and is attributed to the prolonged severe weather, stagnation in the iron trade, extreme dullness in most branches of the coal and coke trade, and depression in other trades, and notices to workmen. Many of these notices were issued to bring about reduction in wages. Hundreds of families are on the verge of starvation, and the workhouses are full to overflowing. Charitable societies are hard at work, and collecting boxes have been placed in many places of business and public resort.

THE COLLEGE ROWDIES.

Cooling the Ardor of the Riotous Princeton Chaps.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 19.

Twenty-four students from Princeton College were arrested here at midnight last night on charge of disorderly conduct on the streets. They came here in two large sleighs, and by noise and hilarious conduct greatly disturbed the peace in driving from street to street. The police finally made a raid upon them. Each was fined three dollars and eighty cents and discharged.

A COLLISION AT SEA.

A Spanish Steamer Cuts Into a Sailing Vessel.—The Latter Goes Down With All on Board.

CORUNNA, Spain, Jan. 19.

Spanish steamer Ynrrao Bat, from Baltimore via Liverpool, has arrived here in a damaged condition. She reports she was in collision with a British sailing vessel, the Lancashire Witch, which sank with all on board. The steamer's bows were broken in.

The Stewart Case.—Reported Return of the Body and Settlement Nov. 14th.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.

The Star says A. T. Stewart's remains are now in Greenwood Cemetery, to remain until the crypt at Garden City is finished. They were returned to Judge Hilton, Nov. 14, only eight days after the theft, by a middleman, and the amount of money which changed hands was between $35,000 and $45,000, but no agreement was entered into to protect the thieves, who were five in number. The coffin plate was produced as evidence of identity.

Summoned Without Warning.—Death at the Chancel Rail.

BOSTON, Jan. 19.

Mary Dalby, a young woman of 28 years, while attending 8 o'clock mass, at St. James Church, this morning, suddenly expired. She had advanced to the chancel rail and partaken of the sacrament, and, kneeling longer than usual, was touched by a lady, who discovered that she was dead. She was apparently well until the moment of going to the chancel, and the cause of death is a mystery.

How New York Fires Originate.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.

A fire broke out early this morning in Herman Barthoman's cabinet factory on Clinton street. The flames were extinguished before much damage was done. When the firemen entered the building they found the floor and doors saturated with kerosene, evidently the work of an incendiary. No arrests.

The Torch of the Incendiary.—Town Nearly Destroyed by Fire.

ELIZABETH, Ky., Jan. 19.

The entire business portion of Allenville, Ky., was burned yesterday. Loss, between $30,000 and $35,000; insurance small. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

ISRAELITES IN CONGRESS.

A New York paper refers to Mr. Edward Einstein, congressman-elect from the seventh district, as the second Israelite who has been elected to Congress from that city. The first was Emanuel H. Hart, elected in 1851. An organ of the Jewish faith mentions another, but as his name does not appear in the records, we infer that the writer is in error. Henry M. Phillips, a prominent Hebrew of Philadelphia, was elected to Congress in 1857, and reëlected in 1859. Boston elected Leopold Morse to the present Congress and has reelected him. There have been two distinguished Israelites in the Senate. Judah P. Benjamin of Louisiana served from 1853 to 1861, when he withdrew and subsequently took a leading part in the Confederate Government. David L. Yulee of Florida was elected for three successive terms, serving from 1845 to 1851. He, too, was prominent in the Confederacy. He was a political prisoner in Fort Pulaski in 1865, but was released in 1866.—[Washington Post.

LET IT DRY.

Mr. Spurgeon once went to preach in a church a little outside of London. The day was wet and muddy, and the pants of Mr. Spurgeon were plentifully covered with dirt. A good deacon in the vestry said: "Bro. Spurgeon, let me get a brush and take off some of that mud; you can't go into the pulpit in that state." "Don't be foolish, deacon!" said Mr. Spurgeon in his usual, good-humored way; "don't you see the mud is wet, and if you try to brush it off now, you will rub the stain into the cloth. Let it dry, and then it will come off easy enough, and leave no mark." There is an admirable hint here for every one. When evilly spoken against, as we may be for the sake of truth, and men throw mud at us, don't be in a hurry about brushing it off. Too great eagerness in this respect is apt to rub the stain into the cloth. Let it dry, and then, by-and-by, if need be, it can be removed by a little effort. If there is a little trouble in the church, don't foster it by haste and hurry in doing something. Let it alone—let it dry, and it be more easily settled than you think now. Time has a wonderful power in such matters; and it is surprising how many things in the world would be better arranged, and how many difficulties easily got over, by judiciously letting them dry.—[Ex.

PERSONALS.

.....A London dispatch says that Ward, the artist, has cut his throat while insane.

.....The wife of President Porter of Yale College has been elected president of the Connecticut Training School for Nurses.

.....Calvin T. Filmore, a brother of the late President of the United States, has just died at Ann Arbor, Mich., at the age of sixty-nine.

.....Henry Morrissey, who fought on the Victory at Trafalgar, saw Nelson fall and subsequently had his own leg broken by a shot, has just died at Halifax, aged 94 years.

.....Miss Anna Dickerson was greeted Friday night by a very large, aristocratic audience in Chickering Hall, New York, where she delivered her lecture on "Platform and Stage."

.....Daniel O. Colman, Charles H. Brannegan and Thomas Clune, three young men of New York, have organized themselves into a life-saving brigade in generous rivalry to "Nan the Newsboy" and his companions. They have already saved several lives.

.....Alfred Coit, judge of the Court of Common Pleas of New London county, Conn., since July, 1877, died Friday night, of congestion of the brain. He was a Representative in the Legislature in 1862, and State Senator from the seventh district in 1868.

.....The credit of the invention of a system of packing the tracks of the Metropolitan Elevated Railroad, New York, in sand, thus materially lessening the noise, is claimed by Mrs. Mary E. Walton, of No. 68 West Twelfth street, New York, who has applied for a patent. She has made an arrangement with the company to apply her packing system to the whole line of the road.

.....The creditors of Mrs. Mary A. Chase, wife of the Fall River defaulter, have decided to accept her offer of four per centum on her endorsements of $213,000 of her husband's paper. The creditors of James A. Hathaway, who was a heavy endorser of Border City Mills paper, have agreed to settle for three per centum, or about $16,000. Mrs. Chase still occupies her old home, and is taking boarders.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Tribune is moved to remark that the Potter investigation has been a boon to the Republican party, and a genuine era of prosperity to the Louisiana liar.

A Democratic legislator in Indiana has already brought in a bill throwing most of the Republican Congressional majorities into a single district and giving a chance to elect nine Democratic members out of the thirteen.

The Philadelphia Times says, If John Sherman expects to run for President next year he will hardly be foolish enough to rely much on New York. Senator Conkling is the party in New York, and Conkling is not much of a Sherman man himself.

The eldest daughter of the late Princess Alice, a sixteen-year-old girl, is said to be exceedingly lovely, intelligent and fine in character. She has the scientific tastes of her mother, and promises to be a Princess by right of brains as well as of birth.

We greatly mistake if Senator Platt does not prove to be at once one of the ablest and one of the most serviceable representatives Connecticut has ever had in the honorable body to which he is to be accredited.—[Hartford (Ct.) Post.

Political idiocy knows no distinction of party lines this year in Connecticut. The Republicans having nominated Mr. Platt for the United States Senate, the Democrats, who have a man like Gov. Hubbard, have nominated for re-election—Barnum!—[Springfield Republican.

And although it would very much surprise Mr. William M. Evarts to be made certain of the fact, Mr. Hayes is probably secretly in favor of Mr. Sherman. One good, at least, will come from Mr. Sherman's candidacy. It will help to defeat the renomination of Gen. Grant.—[New York Sun.

The Democratic party has trouble enough without the return of Mr. S. J. Tilden to public life; but he is coming, and this time he has two barls of good money, and he does not propose to have his bureau run by nephews any more. Uncle Sammy is tired of despotism. As to Mr. Hendricks, why it's "Tommy, make room for your uncle."—[Cincinnati Commercial.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

SUFFERING FOR A LIFE TIME.

Persons afflicted with rheumatism often suffer for a life time, their tortures being almost without remission. The joints and muscles of such unfortunates are in most cases shockingly contorted and drawn out of shape. To afford them even temporary relief, the ordinary remedies often prove utterly useless. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, is avouched by persons who have used it, to be a genuine source of relief. It keeps the blood cool by promoting a regular habit of body, and removes from it impurities which, in the opinion of all rational pathologists, originate this agonizing complaint and its kindred malady, the gout. Besides this the Bitters remedy disorders of the stomach, liver and nerves, prevent and eradicate intermittent and remittent fevers, promote appetite and sleep, and are highly recommended by physicians as a desirable medicinal stimulant and tonic.

The Journal is a large, 32 column paper, and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from this city.

MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 1879.

Capital punishment was abolished in this state Feb. 11, 1852.

The report that the Old Colony Steamboat Company is about to build a new steamer is authoritatively denied.

Gen. Nathaniel Green, the Rhode Island hero of the revolutionary war, died in Georgia, June 19, 1786, aged 44 years.

Joseph Wanton was the last of our colonial governors. He was a Tory and was formally deposed from office Nov. 7, 1775.

These are the days and nights when a man who owns a sleigh is happy, and the heart of the livery-stable keeper is made glad.

The Milwaukee Sentinel thinks Edmunds would carry every northwestern state in 1880, and it is "doubtful if the Republican party can do better."

The House coinage committee will report, during the present week, in favor of adopting the metric system of weights and measures. That is sensible.

It is expected that the Senate committee will report in favor of purchasing land for a new Custom House in Providence, as provided for in Senator Burnside's bill.

An exchange says it is generally understood in Washington that Sidney Everett, Secretary of the American Legation at Berlin, will be appointed Minister to Germany, to succeed Bayard Taylor. Oh!

The Massachusetts riflemen banish liquor from their annual dinner as the foe of steady nerves. The moral of this temperance lecture is profitable for the reproof of all kinds of professional sporting men.

The dedication of the State Normal School at Providence occurs on Thursday of this week. Addresses are expected from Gov. Van Zandt, Commissioner Stockwell, James C. Greenough, Augustus Woodbury and others.

The insurance rates were advanced in New York on Saturday and there will probably be a movement in the same direction in other cities. As things go it is impossible for the companies to gather enough from premiums to pay losses.

Senator Conkling is losing some of his best friends by his unmannerly treatment of the President. The New York Legislature would do itself credit by electing Hon. E. D. Morgan to his seat. He has been tried and found faithful and there is no better man for the position in the Empire State.

One by one the remnants of the great centennial exhibition are being removed. It is now announced that Machinery hall will be sold at auction February 8. A large number of exhibits are still in the building, and unless they are removed they will also be sold. The original cost of the building, exclusive of boiler-houses, etc., was $634,867.

All the stories about the recovery of A. T. Stewart's body are unauthorized and to be taken with great allowance. They are at best but shrewd guesses of the correspondents, and it is well known that New York reporters sometimes make mistakes. The remains of the late millionaire may have been found but the public, as yet, has no proof of the fact.

Continued reports of distress among the working classes reach us from England. Business of all kinds is depressed and the workmen are making matters as bad as possible by their continued strikes and agitations. It is a pity at such times that people cannot, or will not, adapt themselves to the circumstances and be content to make the best of the situation.

General Butler is said to take the ground that the cipher dispatches ought not to be investigated, as, if they had anything to do with fraud at all, it was a fraud which did not succeed in accomplishing anything, and that consequently the cipher dispatches are purely a private matter between citizens with which neither the Government nor any officer of the Government has any interest. In this Gen. Butler may be right, but it does not lessen the guilt of Pelton, Marble, and the other magnates in the compaign for Tilden and reform.

A bill will be reported in Congress during the present week in favor of redeeming the trade dollars at par. We always expected this would be done as soon as those dollars were snugly in the hands of the speculators who have been buying them up at a discount. The refusal to take trade dollars has not been without a purpose on the part of the Wall street banks and brokers who started the ball.

The meeting of the R. I. Institute for Instruction in Providence was a pleasant and successful gathering in all respects. The teachers of our public schools do well to come together at such times and compare notes. Quite a number from this city were present and several others would have been there but for sickness. Our schools which have been closed during the session are opened again today.

The Rhode Island Manual for 1878-9 prepared by Hon. J. M. Addeman, Secretary of State, is received. It is really a valuable document and furnishes in a convenient form much information which every good citizen needs to know. The fine face of His Excellency, Gov. Van Zandt, ornaments the volume, and we hope, some time, the General Assembly will insist upon it that the compiler himself shall be made to appear in like manner.

Mr. Clarence Cook contributes a very readable paper on "The New Catholic Cathedral in New York" to the February Atlantic. He gives a brief but graphic sketch of the history of the yet unfinished cathedral, referring in passing to the peculiar manner in which, for the consideration of one dollar, one of the finest building sites in the city was obtained, and criticises in detail the architectural plan of the great church, whereby the maximum of effect has been produced at the minimum of cost. His strictures are severe and will doubtless excite much comment.

The Springfield Republican and several other hypercritical political papers represent the newly named Senator from Connecticut as altogether unfit for the position to which he is nominated. But Gen. Hawley, the defeated candidate, and a gentleman in politics as in everything else, speaks of him as follows:

"Mr. Platt is a gentleman of most honorable character, sound judgment, well-balanced mind, familiarity with political affairs and much sagacity in conducting them. He is sound in principle, an anti-slavery man and Republican from his boyhood, a good hard-money man, and sure to have convictions and follow them. This much his chief competitor takes pleasure in writing hastily at the late hour which announces his nomination."

There seems to be no end of complications in Southern election affairs. Word comes now that Congressman-elect Hull, from the second Florida district, and at present lieutenant-governor of that state, has been indicted for conspiracy in obtaining false returns of the election in Bayard county. Honesty in elections down South is out of the question as the parties are now constituted. Florida, Louisiana, and South Carolina should be remanded to territorial governments and kept on probation a few years. The Republicans and Democrats are alike given to cheating, and take them together they are a set of miserable sinners.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Post says, "for some time the subsidy lobbyists have been strengthening their forces about the Capitol, and it is rumored that a move may be expected tomorrow in the House. John Roach came in Friday to testify in Robeson's case before the Naval Committee, and has remained to look after his Brazilian subsidy scheme. It is understood that a combination has been made between all the subsidy beggars now clamoring in the lobby. The Texas Pacific, Northern Pacific and Brazilian schemes are said to have joined forces, so that now 'no North, no South, no West, and no East' is known in the onslaught on the public treasury."

The House of Representatives on Saturday concluded the discussion of the Geneva award bill, finally passing the measure recommended by the minority of the judiciary Committee,—viz., reviving the former Court of Commissioners, providing for the payment of war-premium claims, allowing six per cent. on past and future judgments, but expressly excluding the claims of insurance companies unless they shall show in respect to their war risks that their losses exceeded their gains. The vote stood 112 to 73. What its fate will be in the Senate is doubtful. One thing is certain, we should either pay over this money to our citizens who suffered losses, or pay it back to Great Britain. It will scarcely answer for us to put in a list of bills and demand payment from the English Government, and then turn about and say the bills are fraudulent, unless we return the cash.

FALL RIVER.

A GOOD TURN.

The correspondent of the Providence Journal having declared a dividend of three per cent. to the stockholders of the Tecumseh Mills, when such is not the fact, E. B. Chase, Treasurer, publishes a card in the News advising the stockholders to call on the correspondent for payment.

A NEW DEPARTURE.—The News says: Until the Rev. Mr. Burnham fully regains his health, the Central Church propose to have but one sermon on the Sabbath, and that in the morning. In the afternoon, however, at half-past two, the church will be opened for a mixed service of praise, song and address, both clerical and lay—all under the direction of the pastor, R. K. Remington, Esq., and Mr. Denne, the organist. While less formal than the regular service, it is designed as a place of gathering for the masses, especially those who have no stated place of worship. The church will be free and open to all, and the public at large are invited to be present and take part in these exercises. Gospel Hymns, No. 3, will be used, and those attending are requested to bring them with them.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—Mr. Benjamin Marsh is no better.

—There will be an important meeting of the City Council this evening.

—Mr. Joseph Bradford remains in about the same condition. He was very poorly yesterday.

—The barkentine Addie E. Sleeper has been towed to New York where she was originally bound.

—The Newport Ice Company was fortunate in securing its crop of ice before the recent snow storm.

—Mr. George Boose has taken charge of the Germania Hotel, kept for so many years by Madame Sturm.

—Capt. K. R. Breese, U. S. N., has been detached from Newport and ordered to the command of the Pensacola.

—The children of the Children's Home were given a sleigh ride in Stewart's big sleigh on Saturday afternoon.

—The fishing schooner Nettie L. Roe is ashore on Brenton's Reef. Capt. John Waters has gone to her assistance.

—The bark Florence from Trinidad, Port Spain, arrived here yesterday after a passage of sixteen days. She is bound to Providence.

—The wrecking schooner J. C. Stout, Capt. Collins, from New York, is at Block Island endeavoring to float the schooner Eliza A. Hooper before reported ashore on the west end of the island.

—The protracted meetings at the Thames street M. E. Church will be continued during the present week. Those held during the past week were very interesting and productive of much good.

—A lad, William Van Horton, of Newark, N. J., applied at the police station Saturday night for lodgings. He walked from Fall River to Newport through the snow, not having the money to pay his fare on the cars.

—Martha T. Thomas has quitclaimed to William Sisson, for $300, all her right, title, and interest in and to a piece of land and dwelling house bounded easterly on School street; and northerly on land of Rhode Island Baptist State Convention.

—Friday the revenue cutter Samuel Dexter, Capt. J. G. Baker, while cruising in Vineyard sound, espied the steamer Eleanor from Portland for New York ashore on the Middle Ground. She was hauled off by the cutter and as no damage resulted she proceeded, thanks to her timely rescue by Uncle Sam's vigilant officials.

—The schooner Orvetta which was ashore on the west side of Goat Island came off Saturday afternoon without assistance or damage and has proceeded to Philadelphia. The captain denies the report that his vessel was ashore. The harbor master and other equally good authorities know better. The captain, unwisely, desired to keep the truth of the matter from his owners.

—A reckless fellow, whose name the police are unable to procure, drove down Thames street Saturday evening at such a furious rate as to endanger all who were on the road bed. At the same time he was punishing his horse in the most outrageous manner. When near the post-office his sleigh collided with one driven by Christopher McCormick, injuring the horse considerbly.

Y. M. C. A.—The meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last evening was one of unusual interest. The rooms were literally packed as were the ante-rooms and aisles. The singing was excellent, and was in charge of Mr. Thomas Nason. Mr. John C. Sanbury had charge of the meeting. The speaker, Rev. E. H. Kettell made an excellent address taking for his subject the "Blood of Christ" from which he drew many instructive and interesting lessons. He spoke in high terms of the Association and of the great amount of good which it was doing and said it gave him great pleasure to see so many young men present. His heart was in the cause and he wished the Association Godspeed in its work. He paid a deserved compliment to its afflicted president, Mr. Joseph Bradford, who had done so much to make the organization a success. These meetings are growing in popularity and are looked forward to with a good deal of interest by many who fail to attend any church and the officers are to be congratulated upon the results of their labor for the benefit of the young men of Newport.

THE SLEIGHING CARNIVAL.

THE TINTINNABULATION OF THE SLEIGH BELLS ON BROADWAY.—THE CITY ON RUNNERS.—A LARGE NUMBER OF SPECTATORS WHO DO NOT OWN TURNOUTS WATCH THE EXCITING SPORT.

The sleighing carnival, if that is a proper term, is being thoroughly enjoyed by all who own sleighs or who can beg, borrow or steal them. Newport has not had such sleighing for years and from present indications it will be improved as though we were never to be blessed with another snow fall. A tour upon Broadway convinced a Daily News reporter (who was on foot) of the truth of the statement. Everybody looked and the reporter, even, was forced to smile as he saw this or that horse pass another after a warm struggle down the hill. The racing is all done down hill, and in going up the sleighs keep to the right of the thoroughfare. They go up the hill at snail pace and their occupants seem to enjoy the staring crowd which line the opposite curbstone and they are thus able to hear the compliments passed upon their fiery steeds. Probably the curbstone brigade were not envious? Bells were jingling everywhere and from around "Lake's" corner came the stylish cutters, or those of more modest appearance, the harnesses of the smoking animals (those not clipped) glittering in the bright rays of the sun which was fast sinking to rest in the western horizon. The horses seemed to like the fun as well as those who were snugly esconsed in the robes that once had been a part of the shaggy bison or the sleek tiger. The sleighs came from every direction and among them we noticed those which had probably done good service in "ye olden times," but we must confess that the sound of the huge bells on these antiquated affairs sent a thrill of joy through our heart as we remembered by-gone days and called to mind the persons who were wont to use them.

The reporter looked in mute astonishment at the festive scene and for the nonce forgot that he was a plebian and with hundreds of others allowed himself to get considerably excited at the unusual spectacle which Broadway—the mart of the bluff, honest farmers—presented. He had no money staked upon Mr. Spooner's magnificant span nor upon the animals driven by Mr. Barker, Mr. Greene, Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Lineham, Mr. Hazard and a score of others, but he is of the opinion that others had, but whether they did or not it matters not to the curbstone scribbler. He enjoyed all he saw and but for the stringency of the money market would have fled to the nearest stable, secured a turnout and had it charged. The livery stable keepers, as might be supposed, were happy, not because of the scribbler's rash thought, but because they rented all their sleighs at good prices and will be likely to for several days to come. We don't blame them for feeling happy. Their charges when the scarcity of the luxury is taken into consideration, are not high and we take the liberty to invite everybody to secure a sleigh ride if they can and if they can't muster the necessary funds, they can step into Richardson's cigar store and purchase a package of tickets for Burton's big sleigh and then they can go forth and enjoy what others appear to be enjoying at a heavier expense. The reporter is going that way the first favorable opportunity. But we have wandered from the sleighing on Broadway. Here they come, round the corner, the reins taut and the particles of snow, &c., strike with stinging effect upon the cheeks of those who are are behind the trotters. All the surroundings are romantic. The sharp air is ground down by the rapidity of transit to a razor edge, gaining, now lapping the sleigh ahead, now the horses haunch, now the silver bells, now the curved neck, and now the fiery nostrils, and now they gain their point and shoot ahead, the sleighs behind stringing out like the tail to a comet. Hurrahs rend the air. The jingle of bells now swells into a grand peaan of pleasure.

There were many ladies driving who did not seem to mind the lodgement of particles of ice and snow in their banged hair. Their cheeks are aglow with the exciting sport and they handle the ribbons, or at least some of them, as well as the young man, (probably their brother) who sits beside them, and who is doing his level best to keep them warm. Some of the ladies appeared alone, but this class did not deign to look in the direction of the reporter. They were pleased with the situation and did not care to have any extra ballast. We don't blame them in the least. No policemen were on hand to hold up their snow-white hand, and the occupants of the sleighs had their own way, and some appeared to forget the existence of that society with a long name. A policemen or two would not be out of place in the vicinity during the existence of the sport. The excitement was kept up until dark when the reporter slowly wended his way homeward his head full of the many exciting "brushes" which he had seen and he wondered whether any challenges would be the result of the afternoon's sport. The darkness, however, did not put an end to the sport. When the bright stars appeared they shone upon a merry sight, but we regret to announce that not a few took advantage of the night to abuse their animals, and a large number on Sunday lost sight of the existence of one of the Ten Commandments.

THE ODD FELLOWS' LECTURES.

The last of the course of lectures and entertainments but one, by the Odd Fellows will be given in their hall tomorrow night by Col. Nicholas Smith. A New York paper has the following in regard to his lecture, "A Plea for Tramps," delivered in Chickering Hall in that city:

His audience was large, and comprised many well-known professional, literary, military, and business people. When the handsome, graceful, and elegantly attired lecturer appeared on the platform, he was welcomed with a salvo of applause, while his auditors, especially the ladies, scanned him keenly, to see how closely he resembled the tragic actor with whom, as regards personal appearance, he has often been compared. It was at once evident that he had full command of himself and his gestures, as well as of his voice and its tones, and that he was familiar with all the arts of the lecturer's platform.

The character of the lecture agreed with its title, "A Plea for Tramps." It contained many eloquent passages, that were delivered with fine effect and fully appreciated by the listeners, who were lavish with their manifestations of pleasure. It also contained many anecdotes of personal experiences of Col. Nicholas Smith, not a few of which were felt to be thrilling by the audience. His pictures were finely drawn and colored, his illustrations were apt, and his passages of argument and sentiment were strong and clear. Taken all in all, the lecture was a marked success, and the salutations he received at its close were proofs of the deep impression he had made. No doubt it will be one of the most attractive lectures of the opening lecture season.

NEW BEDFORD.

DEATH OF EDWARD W. HOWLAND.

The Mercury says:—Edward W. Howland, one of the prominent men of our city, died at his residence on South Sixth street yesterday morning in the 75th year of his age, having been born here on the 22d of December, 1804. In early life he lived and worked upon the farm at Clarke's Point, then owned by his father, and which subsequently was his by inheritance. About the year 1835, he removed to the city, and became actively interested in the whale fishery as agent and owner of ships, in which business his brother, the late Capt. Cornelius Howland, was soon after associated with him. The firm was one of the most substantial and respectable in the city, and its operations were largely successful, some of its ships making exceptionally remunerative voyages. About ten years since, the deceased sold his ships and retired from active business, having amassed a handsome fortune.

While New Bedford was a town, he was long one of the Overseers of the Poor, and after it became a city was one of its Aldermen. He was for many years a director in the Marine (now the First National) Bank, and at his death was its President. He was also a director in the Wamsutta and Potomska manufacturing companies, and a member of the Board of Investment in the New Bedford Institution for Savings. His practical good sense and large observation had greatly supplemented the deficiencies of early education; and he filled the responsible positions to which he was called with credit and usefulness. A birth-right member of the Society of Friends, he was prominent and influential in the management of its affairs, being one of the committee having charge of the Friends' School at Providence, R. I., and also of the committee who had the care of certain of the Indian tribes.

G. A. R.

In the Newport correspondence of the Boston Sunday Herald we find the following in regard to the man who, it is expected, will be elected Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Rhode Island for the ensuing year:—

The comrades in this city are much interested in the meeting, and are thinking of putting forward as a candidate for department commander Colonel Samuel R. Honey of this city, who has been prominent in Grand Army circles in this city, is a member of Governor Van Zandt's personal staff, and has a brilliant record as a soldier. It would seem to be but a matter of justice that the department commander should be selected this year from some other city or town than Providence, from which all the commanders have been selected from the beginning, and the Newport comrades consider that their claims are as good as any, especially as they present a candidate who is a representative soldier and a good, square citizen. Colonel Honey enlisted in the regular army of the United States Aug. 13, 1860, several months prior to the breaking out of the rebellion, being then 18 years of age. He enlisted as a private, of course, and, when the war broke out, was assigned to the Second Battalion of the Fifteenth United States Infantry (one of the new regular regiments then organized under act of Congress). He rose rapidly, passing through the grades of corporal, sergeant and sergeant-major of the battalion, to second and then first lieutenant of the regiment. He joined the regular brigade, Fourteenth Army Corps, Army of the Cumberland, in June, 1863, and remained with that brigade until Sept. 1, 1864, serving as adjutant of the regiment during the campaigns of Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge and Atlanta, and was brevetted captain, United States army, for gallant and meritorious services on the Atlanta campaign, and at the battle of Jonesboro, Ga., where he was seriously wounded. He was afterwards transferred to the Thirty-third United States Infantry, and was promoted to captain in that regiment. After the war was over he was in command of Post Dahlonga, Ga., in 1867, and then acting judge advocate on the staff of General Pope, commanding Third Military District, and also served in the same position on the staff of General Mead, commanding the same district, and was honorably discharged on his own application at Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 1870, having been in the service more than ten years. He is a lawyer, and stands high in his profession, and as a citizen is honored and respected by all.

GLEANINGS AND GOSSIP.

More gold is going into the Treasury than is coming out.

The state debt of Connecticut is $4, 967,650, and that of cities, towns and counties, $17,151,327—a total of $22,118,977, or about $11 15 per capita.

"Dan, the Newsboy," and his companions have just saved their twenty-sixth life, that of a man named Colligan, who had fallen between the wharf and a schooner in New York harbor.

A train bearing Sir Edward Thornton, the British Minister at Washington, and a party of friends who were on their way to Niagara Falls leaped the track at St. Catherine's, Ont., last Wednesday evening and ran over the sleepers for a considerable distance, but was not wrecked.

Fitz Hugh Ludlow, in his narrative of travel in "The Heart of the Continent," tells of an eccentric genius who improved on the old yarn to the effect that "the weather would have been colder if the thermometer had been longer," by saying he had been where "it was so cold that the thermometer got down off the nail.

Lowell has over $16,500,000 invested in manufactures, 100 mills, 745,048 spindles and 18,261 looms; 11,660 females are employed and 7625 males, while 3,444,600 yards of cotton goods are produced per week, with 112,650 yards of woolen goods, 46,000 yards of carpeting, 6250 shawls and 20,300 dozens of hosiery, 1,000,000 pounds of cotton and 170,500 of wool being consumed.

A PRACTICAL CURE FOR TRAMPS.

As a matter of interest, the following figures have been collected to show the good effect of the working of the stone-breaking yard upon the tramps. The yard was opened upon the first day of the new year. On that day fifty-one lodgers are reported to have slept in the station-house the night before, the same number as on the same night the year previous. From this figure the number has daily decreased:

THE PERIODICALS.

THE NURSERY is as good as ever, and the children continue to cry for it. The present number has some very pleasant engravings, with stories to match. Long live the Nursery.

POTTER'S AMERICAN MONTHLY is also in hand with a long list of able articles from various authors some well known; and others giving promise of becoming such. This magazine is always well illustrated and the views of the "Queen City of the Plains," Denver, afford Eastern people with new ideas of the growing west. It is a good number and can be obtained at Clarke's.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL for February is an excellent number. It opens with a life-like portrait and phrenological and biographical sketch of Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada, and contains also portraits and sketches of the late Bayard Taylor, American Minister to Germany, and also of the Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise. There is also a great amount of valuable information in the several departments, Answers to Correspondents, etc. The publishers of this Journal have kept abreast of the times by making a reduction in price but maintaining the high standard of their, magazine in its literature and usefulness. It is now published at $2.00 per year, with liberal premium offers to subscribers. Copies may be had at the newsrooms in this city.

THE ATLANTIC for February has come to hand and has a varied list of articles including serial and short stories, poems, travel-sketches, criticisms, reminiscences,—indeed, almost every thing suitable for a popular magazine. Among the contributions is Mr. Howells's "Lady of the Aroostook," one of the most engaging stories Mr. Howells has ever written; and Mr. H. A. Huntington's "Sword and Awl," a short story of the civil war. The admirers of Bayard Taylor will read with interest Mr. Stoddard's reminiscences. There are also "The Career of a Capitalist"; "Limited Sovereignty in the United States;" Mrs. Stowe's "Modern Martyrdom of St. Perpetua," Mark Twain's "The Recent Great French Duel;" Richard Grant White's "London Streets"; Clarence Cook's "The New Catholic Cathedral in New York;" W. W. Story's A "Roman Holiday Twenty Years Ago;" William F. Apthorp's "Musicians and Music-Lovers;" and criticisms of Mr. James's "Europeans" and some other recent novels; besides the varied "Contributors' Club" and a full chapter of "Recent Literature." The number contains poems by Lucy Larcom, Albert Laighton, Mrs. Piatt, and others. The number may be had at the usual places.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE.
The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes much farther and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.
☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; its costs but 2c. a pound, Cream of Tartar over 30c. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.
☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere.

INSURANCE

AGAINST LOSS BY FIRE

CAUSED BY

ACCIDENT, INCENDIARISM, LIGHTNING,

Or any Other Cause.

I REPRESENT the oldest company in America, and also the largest company in the United States, together with other standard American and European institutions. The Ætna of Hartford alone has paid over $15,000,000 in losses, and has now $7,000,000 assets in hand.

Insurance in such companies, with ample means, and an established reputation for fair dealing, is worth much more than in any of the numerous weaklings that totter along for a while and then go down. About fifty such companies have failed during the last year, and as many others are on the way to ruin.

The rates in these first-class companies are no higher than in the small and doubtful concerns.

Farm property taken very low for three or five years.

All losses settled at this office. For terms call on, or address by mail the undersigned at the office of this paper, L. D. DAVIS.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
Great Through Line
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE.

The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

CONSTRUCTION AND EQUIPMENT
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrate the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

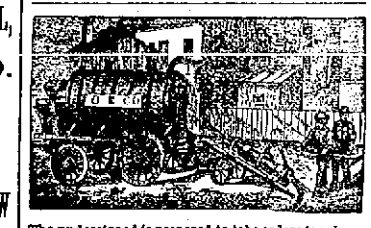

THE BLOCK SYSTEM of SAFETY SIGNALS,
Janney Coupler Buffer and Platform,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

PULLMAN PALACE CARS
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis, WITHOUT CHANGE
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but once change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grand our, beauty, and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
